WE WELCOME each of you to our service this morning and are so happy that you are spending the Lord's Day with us. If you are visiting our church for the first time, we trust you will be blessed as we worship the Lord together through the music and the message from God's Word. Mark's message this morning is "Intro to the Tribulation." We trust you'll come back again tonight for our service beginning at 6:00. Mark will be speaking on "Love's Rare Acts" in his series of "Divine Love." Please plan to join us.

A THOUGHT: If you eat well, get good sleep, exercise, and drink plenty of water, you'll die anyway.

DID SOMEBODY SAY ICE CREAM ??? Yes !!! They did !!! Which sounds like a good idea ! So next Sunday night after the evening service, we'll have a time of ice cream and fellowship outside in the pavilion. There is a list on the table in the foyer for you to sign if you would like to help by bringing ice cream, or toppings, or a salty snack food to go along with the ice cream.

PLEASE NOTICE: We are planning to have some missionaries attending and speaking in our church next month and they will be staying in the parsonage. As we are in the process of re-stocking the parsonage, there are a few things we still need. If you would like to help supply some items, please see Debby to see what is needed. Thanks.

SMILE-A-WHILE: A young girl observed plaques on the wall of the church building and asked her mother, "Mommy, why are those people's names on the wall?" The mother replied, "They are people who died in the service." Without blinking, the little girl asked, "Did they die in the morning or the evening service?"

Don't stress about your eyesight failing as you get older. It's just nature's way of protecting you from shock as you walk past the mirror.

I choked on a carrot at lunchtime and all I could think was, "this would not have happened if it was a donut."
