WE WELCOME everyone to our service this morning and trust you have come with hearts prepared to receive a blessing as we look into God's Word today. If you are visiting with us today, we are most happy to have you and trust you'll come back again! This morning Mark will be speaking on "The Red Horse of War." We invite and encourage each of you to come back again tonight for our service beginning at 6:00. Mark will be speaking on "Love's Passion for Truth" in his "Divine Love" series. Please plan to join us.

MANY THANKS to each one who brought ice cream and other goodies for our fellowship time last Sunday night! And "thank you" Zachery for cleaning the pavilion so nicely for our get-together. Also, a big thank you to Bill for all the benches he made for the moms outside the church while the children are playing!

*****

ANOTHER ROUND OF THANKS!!!! A lot of work was done this past week at the parsonage to get it ready for occupants. Thank you Sue, Carolyn, Alex, Kaitlyn and Prayse for all the time you spent working. Bryce and Levi also helped with the "man chores!" And also Debby as she has been heading it up and acquiring furniture and many needed items.

PLEASE NOTICE: As many of you know, tomorrow there will be a total eclipse of the sun. The southern states of the U.S. will have total darkness, while we here in Maryland will have some darkness. The eclipse will occur between 1:00 and 4:00 and you may be tempted to see it. PLEASE DO NOT LOOK AT IT. It may cause blindness. Please warn your children if they will be outside; better yet, they will be safer in-doors during this time. The best way to see it is on the evening news.

SMILE-A-WHILE: The wife of a business executive asked her husband at the company picnic about how many times he went back for more food. "Doesn't it embarrass you that people have seen you go to the buffet table five times?" The husband replied, "Not a bit. I just tell them I'm filling up the plate for you."
